Author Bob Buford called them " code breakers " . They are people age 40 and older who have pioneered the art of finishing well in these modern times, and who can teach us to do the same, starting today. Buford sought out 60 of these trailblazers—including Peter Drucker, Roger Staubach, Jim Collins, Ken Blanchard and Dallas Willard—and has recorded their lively conversations in these pages so that they can serve as " mentors in print " for all of us. " Twenty years from now, " Buford writes, " the rules for this second adulthood as a productive season of life may be better known. But for now, we " re out across the frontier breaking new ground. " Buford gives you a chance to sit at the feet of these pioneers and learn from them about Finishing Well so that you may shift into a far more fulfilling life now, no matter your age. A life of significance that will be a legacy for future generations too.

Success Is Great. But Significance Is Lasting.You ' ve achieved a measure of success in the first half of life, and it ' s been a thrill. But deep in your heart, you want your second half to count for something far more. Something bigger than you. Significance. You ' re not alone; you ' re in " Halftime. " You want to discover where your deepest passions intersect with your greatest abilities and harness them to help change the world. But what does significance look like? How do you attain it? What will it cost you? What if you are not yet financially independent? Who can help you make sense out of this stage of life?Lloyd Reeb knows how it is. He ' s wrestled with the same questions—and found answers. In From Success to Significance, he unfolds a blueprint that has helped thousands of men and women redefine success and infuse their lives with eternal significance. Adapt Reeb ' s approach to your circumstances and, with God ' s help, put it in motion. It works, and it will work for you.Discover God ' s unique purpose for your life. Your talents, your drives, and everything you are will make sense in a new way and have an impact you ' ve never dreamed of. Go ahead, start dreaming. Because significance is within your reach, and it starts by finding the freedom to dream. " Many people measure their success by wealth, recognition, power, and status. There's nothing wrong with those, but if that ' s all you ' re focused on, you ' re missing the boat. Lloyd Reeb shows that if you focus on significance—using your time and talent to serve others—that ' s when truly meaningful success can come your way. "

Bob Buford tells the compelling story of an unlikely, 23-year friendship between the Austrian-born 'father of modern management' who loves Japanese art, and a wealthy Texas cable TV operator and ardent Dallas Cowboys fan. Under-the-radar they organize meetings with an elite list of leaders to revolutionize the world of non-profit organizations.

" You can almost taste the food in Bill Buford ' s Dirt, an engrossing, beautifully written memoir about his life as a cook in France. " —The Wall Street Journal What does it take to master French cooking? This is the question that drives Bill Buford to abandon his perfectly happy life in New York City and pack up and (with a wife and three-year-old twin sons in tow) move to Lyon, the so-called gastronomic capital of France. But what was meant to be six months in a new and very foreign city turns into a wild five-year digression from normal life, as Buford apprentices at Lyon ' s best boulangerie, studies at a legendary culinary school, and cooks at a storied Michelin-starred restaurant, where he discovers the exacting (and incomprehensibly punishing) rigueur of the professional kitchen. With his signature humor, sense of adventure, and masterful ability to bring an exotic and unknown world to life, Buford has written the definitive insider story of a city and its great culinary culture.
