The third book, Children of Dune, was a return to form and God Emperor of Dune further expands Frank Herbert's universe. Together with Dune itself this is probably my favourite. I don't want to give away the plot for those who have not read it, but like the others in the series it is a multi-layered story with elements of economics, “God Emperor of Dune” by Frank Herbert (Review. Dune ...

God-Emperor is the title associated with Leto Atreides II after he ascended to the throne of the Atreides Empire. The title reflects both his status as ruler of multiple galaxies, and the formidable prescience powers he acquired after his transformation to a human - sandworm hybrid. The title did not endure well after his death.

The fourth entry in the series, God Emperor of Dune, is a bridging work leading to a new trilogy. Before Frank Herbert died in 1986, he wrote the first two books in that trilogy, Heretics of Dune and Chapterhouse: Dune, and made notes for the third volume, to which he gave the working title Dune 7.
