Hiding in the Open: A Holocaust Memoir by Sabina S. Zimering

It all started with a discussion with my relatives and then a question popped up in my mind "Why can't I dry my bras in the open under the sun?" Well, in our discussion I couldn't get an answer for who started this idea of hiding women undergarments. Why hide a bra? Is it a private part ...

John Hoskison dreams of making it as a successful golf pro on the European PGA Tour. When he meets Seve Ballesteros for the first time and makes the cut in the Martini International, he looks set for success. Then reality kicks in at Royal Birkdale in the PGA Championships. This is a true story of how someone has to deal with life's ups and downs. After topping a shot in front of Seve, shanking in front of Sandy Lyle and almost hitting Greg Norman with a monumental slice, John has to deal with the brutality of championship golf. With confidence in tatters John sets out on a quest to find a golf swing that will work and stand the ultimate test of playing in The Open - his dream. But there are no psychologists or coaches to help. Like the rest of the young pros, he has to find the solution himself and no stone is left unturned. From trying crazy superstitions to simply copying the top players like Tom Watson and Nick Faldo, this book shows the difference between the modern day tour pro and the young men who went into battle with blindfolds on. The account of John Hoskison's life on tour is funny, sad and brutally honest. This book will be a fascinating read for all keen golfers or sportsman and the sting in the tail will surprise everyone who reads it. Excerpt from the book: Just before driving home the chairman of West Surrey came to shake my hand. 'John - you're a star, ' he said. I smiled. I had felt like one all day. The Titleist Tour clothes designer, proving himself a colour-blind schizophrenic, had far outstripped his previous three design attempts taking 'conspicuous' to new heights. The pattern on my sweater that day was literally stunning. I knew it was power dressing by the reaction of the players in front of me when I had earlier stepped onto the first tee and whipped off my waterproof jacket. Both Craig Stadler and Tom Weiskopf looked stunned. 'Wow, ' said Craig. 'You should warn people before you do that.'

No Hiding in Boise tells the stories of three women brought together by a mass shooting at a bar in Boise, Idaho. Angie's husband, Cale, was at the bar during the shooting (an outing he kept secret from his wife) and is now in a coma; Tessa was tending bar on the fateful night and believes Cale saved her life; and Joyce is the mother of the shooter who must come to terms with her role in the tragedy.

The #1 testimony book that every Christian needs to read. Despite the danger and threat of discovery, the ten Boom family courageously offered shelter to persecuted Jews during the Nazi occupation of Holland. Then a trap brought about the family's arrest. Could God's love shine through, even in Ravensbruck?

This is the story of Zenon Neumark's experiences as a Jewish teenager in Nazi-occupied Europe. He escaped from a forced labor camp in Tomaszow Mazowiecki, Poland, and lived under a false Polish Catholic identity, first in Warsaw and later in Vienna. It is a story about betrayal by friends and rescue by strangers; about a constant fear of being recognized as a Jew; the struggle for lodgings, work and blending in with the local population; a story of a double life working for opposing Resistance groups; and opportunities to help others survive. The story ends with his recapture in the Warsaw Uprising of 1944 and deportation to a camp in Vienna, where, after another escape, he was liberated by the Soviet Army. Neumark is a recipient of the 2016 Wybitny Polak Award given by the Foundation Teraz Polska to outstanding Poles living abroad.

This story is of two families, drawn together by friendship as well as desire to give justice to the small communities in a raw Wyoming. The Deans and Egans were epitome of hard work, endurance, and justice in the late 1870s. Written in the style of Louis L'amour.

The true story of a young Jewish woman during the Holocaust and the Catholic family who saved her life.

This book is for people who believers in the gospel of God, and it reveals the power that we need to live a long and prosperous life as successful adults. This book is to inform, explain and give a reason why, "we" as true believers of the gospel are living life-styles far from the grace of God. This book is not here to change anyone mind but to offer a new way of thinking and to offer knowledge and Bible scriptures concerning how we are being brainwashed and manipulate against the true gospel of God. We are being used as commodities. We all need help beyond man's imagination to open our eyes to the many negative situations that have been set-up in this world to lead us into destroying each other and the prosperous life God has stored for us. This book will empower, strengthen, equip, shield, protect and prepare us for the duration of our lives and for judgement day. Let us open this book and gain knowledge to help ourselves so that we will not continue being so disrespectful and dehumanizing to the true ways of God. We causing so much destruction to roar throughout this world.
