The pareto principle is the theory that 80% of a result is achieved with the first 20% of effort. For example, a student who can get an 80% score on a test with 3 hours of study but would need to study for 15 hours to get 100%. In this case, the path of least resistance is to do the 20% of work that gets you the 80% result.

Robert Fritz's Path of Least Resistance is an empowering guide to creating a life that reflects your abilities and passions. It's not a New Age book, in that the author does not teach that everything that happens to us stems from our conscious attitudes and intentions. He presents very good evidence as to why affirmations and will power don't work.

attach ourselves to temporary details of little significance during our journey. It seems that we are on the wrong path.

However, the way is always permanent.

But, how we walk this footpath determines everything. Steve Leasock offers ideas, insight, and guidelines to loving and living more consciously in a world that seems so complex. The book discusses existentialism, metaphysics, and spirituality. He dives deep into topics relating to how we love and live on this marvelously mysterious path called life.

This book is about creating your life just as the artist creates a painting, a composer writes a symphony, or the poet writes a poem. Robert Fritz further develops his special insights that he introduced in his best selling book The Path of Least Resistance. In Your Life As Art, Fritz shows the relationship among the
