"Klasky keeps you entranced from start to finish." – Romantic Times Librarian Jane Madison discovered she's a witch, and now her life is turning upside down. The local coven has delivered an offer she can't refuse—work a major spell on their behalf or lose her beloved arcane books, her sassy feline familiar, and—worst of all—her compelling astral protector, David Montrose. Librarian-witch Jane Madison has been invited to join the prestigious Washington Coven - a necessary step, if she's going to hold onto her feline familiar, her beloved arcane books, and her sexy warder, David Montrose. As the Coven's tests become more challenging, though, Jane must decide if she can trust her new witchy friend, Haylee. And then there's that handsome Brit, Graeme Henderson, who is proving to be most distracting.... Jane is about to be tested in ways she's never imagined - and, pass or fail, nothing will ever be the same

Filled with magic - both of the witch world and the romance world - complicated family relationships and a heavy dose of chick-lit humor... - Romantic Times New witch Jane Madison is learning a magical lesson the hard way: use it or lose it! Juggling major deadlines at work and a jam-packed social schedule, librarian Jane took a break from her arcane life. Now, her magic is taking a break from her. Her books are fading, her runes are crumbling, and her entire witchy collection—including her compelling arcane protector David Montrose—may soon be lost. Ordinarily, Jane would just buckle down like a good witch and work a little magic. But her emotions are haywire after an, ahem, unexpectedly amorous encounter with David. And her love life gets even more complicated when she meets a great guy—the type of man a smart woman marries. Confused and desperate, Jane stakes everything on one last-ditch spell.
