Holy Spirit: The Power of the Church – Destiny Image
The immense, infinite, humongous power that God extends to believers is the same sort of power that God used to raise Jesus from the dead. In other words, the power at our disposal as the Church can do the most impossible feat, crush the most unconquerable foe. This immeasurably great power is for us -- you and me -- who believe.

#1. Power in the Church (Ephesians 1:16-23; 2:6; 3:20-21)

The church used the threat of excommunication to wield power over rulers. For example, a disobedient quarrel with a pope might result in excommunication. Excommunication freed all kings and vassals from duties to the king. What was an interdict

THE SOURCE OF CHURCH POWER.
Jesus Christ not only founded the Church, but also endowed it with the necessary power or authority. He is the Head of the Church, not only in an organic, but also in an administrative sense, that is, He is not only the Head of the body, but also the King of the spiritual commonwealth.

Sermon by Kerry Bauman, Acts
1:1-8 ...*

The power of God was very evident in the early church. The apostles, nor the believers intended for it to be, but it was on display with signs and wonders, coupled with miracles. After studying the scriptures concerning the power of God, in the early church, I feel that the modern day church is in appalling need of a touch of God with real power.
